

My opinion regarding not allowing satellite radio to offer weather forecasts and traffic news is the same as it is for cable TV vs "free" TV - let the customer (citizen) make the choice. To do otherwise simply gives the appearance - right or wrong - of being in the back pocket of established broadcasters, and is certainly against the USA's entrepreneurial spirit!